Profile of a Recent Rescue ...

This month's featured pet is Mister Tea, a three-year-old tabby who before birth seemed destined for the feral life of his mother in the back alleys of Albuquerque, N.M. Fortunately, Mister Tea's mother was rescued shortly before he and his three siblings arrived. Mister Tea and his brother, Obiwan, were adopted by a Colorado woman and now live a life of comfortable domesticity with 24/7 outdoor access. Mister Tea remains a free spirit, but is quick to show fondness for those he trusts. He loves corned beef and hiding under a pile of crumpled up newspaper pages.
